Our cookie policy

What are cookies?

Cookies are very small text files that are stored on your computer when you visit some websites.

How we use cookies

We only use cookies as strictly necessary in the operation of our website to collect anonymous data via Google analytics on how visitors use our website (such as numbers, where from, time spent, pages viewed, visitor returns) – so that we can improve the site and allow you to share pages with others on social media.

By using our website, you are consenting to this use. If you do not consent, you must disable cookies in your browser, but this may stop our website from functioning properly on your device.

Our Privacy Policy

Collection use and sharing of information

We are the sole owners of the information collected on our website. We only collect information that you voluntarily give us, and we only use this information to respond to you on subjects relating to the reason you contacted us.

We will not sell or rent your information to anyone. We will not share your information with any third party outside our organisation, other than as necessary to fulfil your request.

Unless you ask us not to, we may contact you via email in the future to tell you about new services, special offers and changes to this privacy policy.

Your access to and control over information

You may opt out of any future contacts from us at any time. You can do the following at any time by emailing us at:

info@thelifeskillsacademy.com

See what data we have about you, if any

Change or correct any data we have about you

Ask us to delete any data we have about you

Express any concern you have about our use of your data

Your rights under the GDPR

You have the right, under the General Data Protection Regulation, to have access to your data and to have it erased. Such requests are dealt with on a case-by-case basis, and certain data will need to be kept for legal, accounting and operational needs.

Legal Requirements

Where the law so requires it, we will share your data with the government or legal authority, by acting in good faith in alignment with what the law requires of us. This may include personal data, business data, and financial information.

Changes to our Data policy

Should we revise our data policy in the future we'll provide you with notification.

Security

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit your personal details via the website, this information is protected both online and offline.

Updates

Our privacy policy may change from time to time and all updates will be posted on this page.

If you feel that we are not abiding by our privacy policy, you should contact us immediately by emailing us at:
